

The Age of Industrialisation (Set B) — MCQ Worksheet

Social Science — History • Chapter 4 • 25 Questions, 1 mark each — Total: 25 marks

Instructions: Choose the correct option (A / B / C / D) for each question. Each question carries 1 mark. There is no negative marking. Suggested time: 30 minutes.

Q1. Proto-industrialisation refers to:

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| (A) Production for distant markets through rural cottage industry before factories | (B) Modern factories |
| (C) Software industry | (D) Plantation |

Q2. Richard Arkwright built the first cotton mill in England in:

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| (A) 1771 | (B) 1701 |
| (C) 1801 | (D) 1851 |

Q3. Spinning Jenny was attacked by:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|----------------|
| (A) Women workers fearing replacement | (B) Children |
| (C) Soldiers | (D) Foreigners |

Q4. Manchester became famous for:

- | | |
|---------------------|-----------|
| (A) Cotton textiles | (B) Steel |
| (C) Wool | (D) Tea |

Q5. Before British rule, important Indian export ports were:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------|
| (A) Surat, Masulipatnam, Hooghly | (B) Bombay only |
| (C) Madras only | (D) Karachi only |

Q6. East India Company servants who controlled Indian weavers were called:

- | | |
|---------------|--------------|
| (A) Gomasthas | (B) Sahukars |
| (C) Subedars | (D) Faujdars |

Q7. First Indian cotton mill was set up at:

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| (A) Bombay (1854) | (B) Calcutta |
| (C) Madras | (D) Ahmedabad |

Q8. First Indian jute mill was set up in:

- | | |
|---------------------------|-----------|
| (A) Hooghly (Rishra) 1855 | (B) Surat |
| (C) Mumbai | (D) Patna |

Q9. Dwarkanath Tagore was a prominent:

- | | |
|---|---------------------|
| (A) Bengali businessman of early 19th century | (B) British officer |
| (C) Soldier | (D) Painter |

Q10. Jamsetji Tata is associated with industries in:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--------------|
| (A) Bombay (cotton mills, steel) | (B) Calcutta |
| (C) Madras | (D) Delhi |

Q11. During WWI, Indian textile industry:

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| (A) Gained significantly as British imports dropped | (B) Closed |
| (C) Declined | (D) Was banned |

Q12. Indian factory workers were largely recruited by:

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------|
| (A) Jobbers | (B) Government |
| (C) Foreign captains | (D) Direct ads |

Q13. Most factory workers in early 20th century India came from:

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| (A) Migrants from UP, Bihar, Maharashtra and other rural areas | (B) Foreigners |
| (C) Princes | (D) Tribals only |

Q14. Indian handloom output by 1940s:

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------------|
| (A) Doubled approximately | (B) Vanished |
|---------------------------|--------------|

(C) Halved

(D) Stayed flat

Q15. Manchester labels for India bore images of:

(A) Indian gods (Krishna, Saraswati) to appeal to local market

(B) British kings

(C) French queens

(D) Roman emperors

Q16. Why was hand labour preferred over machines in some industries in 19th-century Britain?

(A) Hand labour was cheaper for certain seasonal/specialised products and for unique designs

(B) Machines were better always

(C) Machines didn't exist

(D) Workers refused machines

Q17. Banarasi sarees and Madras handkerchiefs survived because:

(A) Factory production could not replicate intricate handwork

(B) Government banned factory cloth

(C) No demand

(D) Workers struck

Q18. During WWI Indian factories supplied:

(A) War materials like jute bags, uniforms, leather boots, tents

(B) Only spices

(C) Only food

(D) Nothing

Q19. Calendars by Indian industries used:

(A) Indian gods, kings, scenic landscapes — to identify with consumers

(B) Foreign queens

(C) Cartoons only

(D) Blank covers

Q20. Why did Indian advertisements shift to nationalist symbols?

(A) To appeal to Swadeshi sentiment and link products with national pride

(B) British asked them

(C) Fashion trend

(D) Cost-saving

Q21. Seth Hukumchand set up India's first Indian-owned ____ mill in 1917:

(A) Jute mill (in Calcutta)

(B) Cotton mill

(C) Steel mill

(D) Sugar mill

Q22. Why was British rule particularly harmful to traditional Indian textile producers?

(A) British tariffs and policies destroyed export markets while flooding India with cheap British cloth

(B) British encouraged them

(C) It helped weavers

(D) No effect

Q23. The fly shuttle introduced to Indian handlooms:

(A) Significantly improved productivity of weavers

(B) Was useless

(C) Caused job loss instantly

(D) Was Chinese

Q24. Iron and steel industry in India was pioneered by:

(A) Tata Iron and Steel Company in Jamshedpur (1907)

(B) British government only

(C) Cooperative society

(D) French firm

Q25. Why did the early 20th-century Indian industrial growth concentrate in Bombay and Bengal?

(A) Ports, access to raw materials (cotton/jute), capital, transport, market

(B) Cooler climate

(C) No competition

(D) Government order